++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Rain clearing north, otherwise cloudy with clear spells.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rain in the north fading through the evening, as winds fall light. Otherwise variable cloud with clear spells developing, under which fog patches and rural frost may form. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Thursday:
Any fog slow to clear on Thursday morning and giving way to a widely cloudy day. Patchy outbreaks of drizzle possible, largely over the high ground, but easing later. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Largely settled into the weekend, but on the cloudy side with limited bright spells in the afternoon. Continued risk of fog and frost under overnight cloud breaks. Gradually turning colder.
